8:00 AM – 10:15 AM

at the Ramada Inn
11580 Roosevelt Blvd.
Philadelphia, PA

Without a Script: Improv and Storytelling Skills in OD/HR

Improv and storytelling skills can be extremely useful in training and organizational development activities at your workplace. In addition, these activities can be an excellent resource in areas such as planning, teambuilding, crisis resolution, and employee relations. Improv is a great way to enhance learner retention, increase creativity, establish credibility, build empathy, and generate fun.

Practice using improv skills in a safe learning environment while applying them to assess needs, create a vision, and strategically plan. This dynamic and interactive presentation will present concrete skills that you can place “in your toolbox” and use in a variety of workplace situations.
